The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the indelicate questions, the obnoxious examinations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispenses with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials.

The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of KNOWN COMPOSITION. It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound.

If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

A CARD FROM REV. MR. CARPENTER.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette.

After reading the communication from W. H. S. in your issue of May 22nd, my first intention was not to reply. I don't think much good comes from controversy, and I believe had the gentlemen been present at the service there would have been no need of his lengthy remarks.

The speech to which he refers was fifteen minutes long and not from manuscript, and the report of it was (I presume) not in shorthand.

Allusion to the theme which stirred his ire is made by the reporter before a record of any of the speeches is given, and I venture that the phrase, as used by him, was not so used by any of the speakers.

In prefacing my remarks on the occasion I said that I had been very much pleased and edified recently by an article in a weekly periodical by Thomas Nelson Page.

I refer him to "The Outlook" of May 11, 1907—the subject is, "The Jamestown settlement and its fruits—Civil Liberty." I don't know what his church affiliation is, if any; but I can't think that he is an Episcopalian. And like many others, he is slow to give credit where it is due. Everybody knows, and certainly a minister should know, that the form of religious worship brought to this country by the first permanent settlement was accordings to the English church, and it was the desire of those in that settlement to establish, maintain and teach that form of worship. The colonists were gentlemen, and not failures fleeing from their country. They did want to better their fortunes, and the gentleman does not disparage that endeavor, but they also took good care to start under the protection of God and brought their chaplain, and they took possession of Jamestown Island on the 13th of May, 1607, "for the Kingdom of God and the Kingdom of England." What I say in this paragraph was not in my speech, because it is a long sidetrack the gentleman has wandered into, but as to the "warring against all dissenters" of that age. Is the English church the only one that has "warred?"

He must remember that the Elizabethan period had just closed (1603), the most brilliant up to that time that had ever been in England. Just one instance:

Does he know that an archbishop in 1582 had granted a license to a Presbyterian divine to officiate in the English church? Had he been present at the time of my speech, he would have heard my honest liberality and charity to all those who are in the service of Christ, and as I am ever wont to say. He must never forget that the Episcopal church gave the translation of the Holy Scriptures four years after this infant settlement at Jamestown and they were read there and preached from and it was called by old writers "the mother christian town." What I did say was that when the Pilgrims started from England, in the hope of building up a land where they might have religious freedom, they obtained their charter from the Virginia Company in London, and they started for the Virginia settlement, but were driven by wind and tide to the coast of Massachusetts and landed at Plymouth 1620—thirteen years after the English Virginia settlement, although our school children are often taught to sing "Land of the Pilgrims' pride." I did say that the Jamestown settlement sounded the clarion notes of civil liberty in 1619, and that was before the Pilgrim landing. He failed to say, but to which I did not allude, that the men whose illustrious names he mentions as using their influence, over 150 years after the first settlement, for religious freedom, were Episcopalians, and not dissenters or indifferents.

Hemay think that he knows the facts of history, but he is not up on modern history when he dosen't seem to know that the Episcopal and other Protestant churches have places of worship in Mexico, and they are not chafing either, but are doing their work.

Yes, we must teach the younger generation the facts of history. And there are many who who are just as anxious to be accurate as some of those who champion the cause in public print, although at the time of their teaching they may have no idea that their words are to be printed and require correction.

Please pardon this already too long article; as far as I am concerned this closes the subject.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 25, 1907.

THE ORATION delivered by Rev. C. D. Bulla, pastor of the M. E. Church South, at the southwest corner of Prince and Washington streets, yesterday evening, is generally admitted to have been one of the best that has ever been heard in this city on Confederate Memorial Day. There was a large gathering, and the close attention given the speaker was a significant testimonial of the appreciation of his hearers. The oration had been prepared with care, and it abounded in history extremely interesting to all, especially to those who were contemporaneous with many of the issues and events which led up to the withdrawal of the Southern States from the federal union. Mr. Bulla based everything he uttered on solid facts, and portrayed many thrilling scenes which have been enacted since colonial days in a forcible manner, and reproduced numerous extracts which had been lost to sight in the turmoils incident to and subsequent to the civil war. The oration was delivered in an earnest manner, and the speaker received deserved praise for the able and scholarly style in which he handled the various subjects he brought to the attention of his audience.

BUSINESS interests and organized labor are joining hands for a great "safe and sane" celebration in Chicago on July 4, at which Vice President Fairbanks, Gov. Folk, of Missouri, Mayor Busse, Congressman Lorimer, and other men in public life will be present. The object of the celebration is to bring the forces of labor and capital together for the purpose of creating a better understanding. The resolution adopted by the Building Trades Council states:

It is well known that interests other than organized labor are continually seeking acquaintances, making closer friendships and better relationship with the lawmakers, the statesmen, and the merchant through their club entertainments. The opinion prevails with many of our best-thinking members that labor organizations are somewhat faulty in this respect, and it is desirable, therefore, and considered wise, that on eventful occasions, such as Indepeudence Day and other patriotic days throughout the year, intelligent organized labor should show its appreciation of the progress of the various interests of our country by friendly contract with our leading statesmen and legislators.

The action of the Chicago laboring men is to be commended, and it is hoped that representatives of this class in other cities may adopt the same methods and bring about more amicable relations between labor and capital.

THE CHURCH at different times during the past eighteen centuries has condemned the wearing of jewelry and fine clothes, and a sect in London many years ago came to the conclusion that the wearing of any clothing was wrong for the reason that the first pair was placed in the garden of Eden in a state of nature. Some of the Dunkards of California are now frowning on neckties and fashionable hats. It is possible that the sect may pass a rule before the close of the session they are now holding in Los Angeles making the wearing of a necktie a bar to membership.

AN EFFORT was begun yesterday before the Interstate Commerce Commission to obtain for the public a reduction in the rate of fare charged by the Pullman company for its sleeping car accomodations. This is the first time in the history of the commission that a proceeding has been brought against the Pullman company, and it promises to be an action of more than ordinary interest and importance. The company's charges are extortionate and should be reduced.

From Washington.

Washington, May 25.

There has been some confusion as to the exact time when the tariff changes involved in the recent commercial agreement between this country and Germany are to go into effect. The State Department today received notification from the German government to the effect that it is its understanding that the changes will go into effect immediately. As soon, therefore, as this government is notified of the signature of the Kaiser to the agreement, which was recently ratified by the Reichstag and which gives the minimum tariff to American imports into Germany, the Treasury Department will issue the necessary regulations to customs officers and exporters. This will be followed at once by the presidential proclamation of the agreement. By the terms of the convention itself the agreement respecting changes in the administration of the customs laws will take effect July 1st.

Lax discipline among the soldiers at Fort Brown, was alleged today by Wm. Kelly, banker, of Brownsville, Tex., testifying before the Senate investigating committee. Often, he said, soldiers were seen in the town with their uniforms covered with dirt. They congregated on street corners and frequently neglected to salute passing officers. "There never was any question among the people of Brownsville" he declared, "but that the troops at Brownsville committed the acts that you gentlemen are now investigating."

Because of the incorporation of the Zamboanga Gold Mining Company at Zamboanga, Philippine Islands, the gold fever has developed in certain parts of the archipelago, according to the reports of officials sent to Washington. While it has been known for years that there was gold in the mountains surrounding Zamboanga, few efforts have been made to prospect for it, owing to the difficult nature of the country and unsettled conditions.

The census bureau announces that 8,646,693 cords of pulp wood were consumed in the United States in 1906, as compared with 3,192,123 in 1905. The increase is on account of the increased use of news print paper. There were 250 mills operated in 1906, as against 237 in 1905.

It is said here that Secretary Taft will insist on an independent indorsement from Ohio as its presidental candidate and that he will oppose the coupling of Foraker for re-election to the Senate.

Germany and Austrian manufacturers of pictorial post cards have decided to raise the price of their products six to seven per cent. About 700 wholsale firms have resolved to make the retail dealers bear the advance. As a very large proportion of the cards now sold in America are manufactured in Germany and Austria, it is predicted that the retail prices in this country will be increased.

The Presbyterians.

The Presbyterian General Assembly adjourned at Columbus, Ohio, last night, after selecting Kansas City as the next place of meeting.

The Anti-Saloon League yesterday lost its fight against the report of the permanent temperance committee because that body favored the church temperance federation, when the General Assembly, without a dissenting voice, adopted the report of that committee.

The league, however, secured a commendation, and Rev. T. R. Worrell, of Pennsylvania, who presented the report, declared that the church had need of the league and had room for it, and should divide money in the propagation of its work, but that the church should be an entirely separate organization.

At yesterday's session of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States at Birmingham, Ala., the assembly took up the report of the committee on bills and overtures. The overture from the Ouchita Presbytery, asking for amendments to the Confession of Faith by adding a chapter on the Holy Spirit and the love of God was refused. The overtures regarding the celebration of the anniversary of the birth of John Calvin, in 1909, the Pan-Presbyterian exhibit at Jamestown, and the encouragement of infant baptism were adopted.

Several new overtures were reported by the committee, among them one from Rev. F. J. Brooke in reference to polygamy in the foreign fields. The report recommended that it be answered in the negative. Dr. Brooke took the floor in support of his overture, declaring that missionaries should not receive into the church heathen converts who had plural wives.

The assembly decided to hold the next meeting in Kansas City, Mo.

Will of Capt. Wallace.

The will of Capt. C. Wistar Wallace was probated in the clerk's office of the Corporation Court at Fredericksburg yesterday. His estate is valued at between $175,000 and $185,000. He leaves to the Female Charity School, of that city, $1,000. His stock in the Fredericksburg National Bank, consisting of 122 shares, he left to his only brother, Judge A. W. Wallace during his lifetime; at his death it reverts to J. S. Wallace and H. L. Wallace equally.

Captain Wallace also left $15,000 to the city for the establishment of a permanent public library, to be known as the Wallace Library, provided that the city shall execute such legal papers as shall bind the city to establish the library in three years from the date of his death as a permanent institution of the city, and to properly maintain the same, and to expend not exceeding $5,000 of said legacy in the purchase of a suitable building, and to devote the remainder of the legacy in the purchase of such books selected by a board, not to exceed five members, appointed by the presidents of the University of Virginia, Randolph Macon, Washington and Lee and Richmond colleges.

To his deceased brother's children he left $7,000 each; to his nephew, J. S. Wallace, $10,000 extra; to Mrs. Marion Bruce, $10,000 and a number of other donations of smaller amounts to relatives. Just before his death he made a number of very liberal cash donations to the nurses of the Mary Washington Hospital, where he died, and to the president and clerks in the National Bank of Fredericksburg.

A Scathing Lecture.

New York, May 25.—After a scathing lecture from Magistrate Crane in Centre street Police Court today Henry Roscoe Brown, described as the son of a wealthy widow of Baltimore, Mrs. S. E. Brown and a nephew of former Governor Brown, of Maryland, was discharged on the charge against him of associating with pick-pockets and criminals, on the condition that he would go back to Baltimore. Brown's young wife a mere slip of a girl, promised to see that he obeyed the courts instructions and detectives were assigned to see the couple aboard a train for the south. Brown, when arraigned early in the week under the name of John Brown, pleaded for leniency saying he was a graduate of the University of Maryland and a member of the Maryland Bar, and that a secret mission to the city had made it necessary for him to seek the companions he had been found with by the police for several consecutive nights.

After the tragedy which wrecked his career Mr. Tilton went to Paris, where he ever since lived the solitary existence of a broken-hearted man.

BECKER CONFESSES.

A dispatch from New York says that Henry Becker, confronted last night with the body of Amelia Staffeldt, broke down and confessed that he had witnessed the assault that invited the murder of the 15-year-old Elmhurst girl.

The crime was done by a companion, said the prisoner, who asserted his own innocence.

Becker had been taken to the undertaking rooms where the body has lain since it was found in a field adjoining the farm of the girl's father. There he was ordered first to look upon the body and then place his right hand upon the forehead. Becker shudderingly obeyed and the next moment collapsed. Dragged to his feet and supported on either side by a detective the prisoner was asked: "Did you kill the girl?"

His reply, according to his custodians, was: "Oh, my God, I did not do it, but the man who was with me did it. He killed the girl, and I ran down to the woods."

Becker was taken to the undertaker's by Detective Lieutenants Graham and Galvin, and it was Graham who subsequently told what had occurred.

Detective Graham said that after the prisoner had become calmer he said that he witnessed the attack on the girl and that he was frightened and ran away. He insisted that he did not see the assailant stab his victim, and that he did not see a knife in the man's hand. He declared that the man afterward joined him in the woods, and that they went together to the farm of Mrs. Emily Simonson, where they washed their hands at the pump in the yard.

Becker declared, Detective Graham says, that he and the other man remained near the scene of the murder the rest of the afternoon and then separated. He could give no information as to the identity of the murderer.

Becker was taken to the Queens county jail, in Long Island. The police are not wholly satisfied with his story, but will bend their energies to locating his companion.

Application for an injunction order and receivership will now be made before the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia.

In Carroll county, in an isolated section of the Blue Ridge Mountains, Thursday night about midnight, Rev. Joseph Easter, a Dunkard preacher, was awakened, lured into his front yard, and assassinated, being killed with a shotgun by some one concealed. Seven-year-old Frederick Jones, son of a prominent citizen at Embreeville, near Bristol, was shot from ambush and fatally wounded yesterday afternoon. He threw up his hands and screamed as the gun was fired, the charge entering his head and shoulders. He was picked up unconscious fifty minutes later. The shooting is a mystery, and no probable motive for the act can be assigned.

The Confederate Reunion

Several changes have been made in the programme for the first day's proceedings at the gathering of the United Confederate Veterans in Richmond next week. It was thought necessary to have a business session on Thursday morning for organization and appointment of committees. By request of General Stephen D. Lee, the addresses of welcome by Gov. Swanson, on behalf of the State, Mayor McCarthy, on behalf of the city, and of Mr. Branch B. Morgan, on behalf of the Sons of Veterans, are transferred from Friday morning to Thursday morning, the opening day. These three speeches, with music, organization and announcement of committees, will comprise the programme for the first day. The change will give more time on Friday morning for the addresses of Hon. John W. Daniel and of Col. Robert E. Lee, jr., who are the two principal speakers of the second day's programme. It will be necessary for the gathering to assemble promptly at 9:30 a. m. on the morning of Thursday, May 30th, in order that the business of the day may be rapidly dispatched.

The great parade is scheduled to move at 2 p. m. Thursday evening.

Walters that he had decided to kill himself, and requested Mr. Walters to look after his burial. After shaving himself yesterday afternoon he went out in the yard, and, sitting down in his chair, deliberately cut his throat from ear to ear, dying almost instantly.

AS TO RHEUMATISM.

A well-defined case of rheumatism is generally recognized by medical men as one of the most difficult problems with which they have to deal. It has been found, however, by the experience of able physicians that much benefit results from putting the sufferer from rheumatism under the following treatment: Before each meal there is administered an anti-rheumatic tablet composed of 2½ grains Sodium Bi-Carbonate, 3 grains Salicylic Acid and 1 minim Wine of Colchicum. This is to be followed immediately by a glass of water. After each meal the patient is given a table-spoonful of a preparation of ½ oz. Fluid Extract of Buchu, 1 dram Fluid Extract of Horse Nettle, 1 oz. Amet Cordial, ½ oz. Fluid Extract of Liverwort and 14 ozs. water. The treatment, continued for a month, is said to give most gratifying results, even in unusually stubborn cases. The prescription given above any good druggist can compound.

Today's Telegraphic News

The Murder of Amelia Staffeldt.

New York, May 25.—With his fate depending upon the examination to be made today of a bloody thumb print on the handle of the knife with which fifteen-year-old Amelia Staffeldt was slain Henry Becker, the suspect, who has confessed to, having been a witness to the crime, cringes in his cell at Elmhurst, L. I., and moans that it was "a tall dark Slav who stabbed the little girl."

Today every detective and patrolman in greater New York has a description of the friend of Becker who is suspected of having played the part in the murder and is on the lookout for the man. It is believed that his arrest will take place before night as his name and haunts are known. Meanwhile a wax cast of the thumb print on the knife handle is being made. When it is completed the comparison will be made with Becker's thumb prints. Though the man under arrest protests steadily that his only part of the crime was that of a witness the coils are rapidly tightening about him, and even though it develops that his companion, for whom the police are now searching, was the one who struck the fatal blow, the police expect to prove that Becker was an accesory.

They base this belief on the prisoner's confession that immediately after the crime he washed his hands at a nearby pump at the same time that his companion washed the blood stains from his hands.

Becker after making the fatal admission, while in a spasm of fear, caused being brought face to face with the body of the murdered girl as it lay in an undertaker's morgue, endeavored to cover up his blunder by saying that he was merely washing dirt from his hands. The police expect to disprove this, however, by means of a handkerchief found in Beckers' pocket and a shirt which he took to the laundry immediately after the crime. Each has spots on it which the police believe to be blood and which are being analyzed. The shirt was taken to the Chinese laundry. The handkerchief was stolen from the clothes line of Mrs. Simmonson at whose well Becker washed his hands.

Mrs. McKinley Worse.

Canton, O., May 25.—Mrs. McKinley was worse this morning. Her heart had become weaker during the night and its action was again irregular. It was a change that seemed to forcast the end of the long battle to preserve her life. Relatives were told that while she might live through Sunday, the end could be expected at almost any time.

Canton, O., May 25.—At noon Mrs. McKinley was very low. She is sinking rapidly and may die at any time. The doctors are constantly at the bedside, and relatives at the house have been prepared for the end.

Since morning Mr. McKinley's condition has become steadily worse. Her heart has become weaker and now fails to respond to stimulants as it did Thursday and Friday.

Riot Started by Children.

New York, May 25.—Children were the instigators today of a riot between longshoremen strikers and strike breakers in south Brooklyn, resulting in the serious injury of several men and the firing of several shots. There was a lively fight before police reserves were able to end the trouble. A gang of negro strike breakers leaving the Fabre line piers after working all night were pelted with stones by children in the street. One negro finally started after a boy who had hit him with a stone. Instantly a dozen men piled on the negro, beating him badly. Nearly all of the 200 strike breakers ran to the assistance of the negro and they were in turn attacked by the strikers. Then some of the negroes began firing. After the police had separated the fighters they arrested two negroes accused of having conceal weapons.

Regatta.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 25.—The fifth annual regatta of the America Rowing Association was held on the Schuylkill river at 2:30 this afternoon with sixteen of the strongest college and club crews in the country entered. Two years ago Cornell eight established the record of 6:40 for the course and Ithicans were very confident today that they would maintain their reputation.

The Haywood Case.

Boise, Idaho, May 25.—Orchard's complete confession is at last in the possession of the defense in the Haywood murder trial. This is regarded as the worst blow yet sustained by the State in the prosecution of Moyer, Haywood, Pettibone and Simkins. The State had planned to keep the defense absolutely in ignorance of what Orchard would say in order that they would be unable to produce witnesses in contradiction. The jury has not been secured.

Failure of "Unwritten Law."

Eastman, Ga., May 25.—The "Unwritten law" pleaded by a woman in defense to the charge of murdering W. H. Harrell, failed to save Mrs. Sallie Freeney, whose trial came to an end today with a verdict of guilty returned against her by the jury. A recommendation was made by the jurors that her punishment be fixed at life imprisonment. Mrs. Freeney claimed she had killed Harrell in defence of her honor.

The terms of the treaty which the two nations propose to sign were read to the council and the announcement made that the agreement would be signed in the near future.

Paris, May 25—Theodore Tilton, the famous American editor and author and principal in the Beecher-Tilton fend, died here this afternoon.

Old Records Found.

The records of the St. George's Protestant Episcopal Church, of Fredericksburg, dating from 1726 to 1817, which were removed from the parish there by federal troops during the civil war and thought to be lost, were returned to that parish a few days ago. The records consist of two books bound in leather, and are well preserved. The book gives the names of the vestryman at that time, and goes on to state that the first meeting was held at Lower Rappahannock Church. Soon afterward they moved to Globe, in Spottsylvania county, but removed to Fredericksburg soon after it was incorporated in 1726

The records show that Rev. Patrick Henry was rector of the church from 1732 to 1735 when he was succeeded by James Marye. At this time the rector's salary and other debts were paid in tobacco; each member of the congregation was assessed a proportionable part by the vestry, which was paid in as church dues. These records show the plots in the cemetery, beside the church, which, beyond a doubt, is the oldest in this city, and shows the exact spot where the body of William Paul, brother of John Paul Jones, is buried in this old graveyard. The records were found at the Episcopal Theological Seminary, near this city, and through the efforts of Rev. Dr. R. J. McBryde, the present rector of the church in Fredericksburg, they were allowed to be returned. They will be placed in the vault of the Fredericksburg National Bank for safe keeping.

About a month ago I contracted a dreadful cold myself, but I took Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and was soon as well as ever." This remedy is for sale by W. F. Creighton and Gibson & Timberman.

"UP TO DATE"

The American Woman's Watchword.

CENTURIES AGO the barbarian roamed the forests and mountains, using flint to light his fires; quite proper then, but nowadays who wants to be a barbarian?

In ye old colonial period the spinning wheel was a most important factor. At present it is but a relic. Imagine yourself making a homespun suit for your husband.

Why then continue the barbarous use of gasoline or oil or coal, thereby risking your life? Why stick to the old stage coach method of using coal and wood stoves? Don't go back to the spinning wheel times. Be modern. The cry in all ages has been "Do as others do," which means that nowadays your fellow creatures adopt the simplest methods of living with the least energy. They are all getting the Estate Gas Range habit. Do likewise.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Confederate Memorial Day.

The exercises in connecti on with the celebration of Confederate Memorial Day yesterday evening were very interesting and were witnessed by a large concourse of people who gathered at the monument at Prince and Washington streets and later in Christ Church yard where the closing scenes were enacted. The streets through which R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans and the Alexandria Light Infantry, marched were thronged with people.

After parading through some of the principal streets, R. E. Lee Camp, and the Alexandria Light Infantry took position in front of the platform at Prince and Washington streets to listen to an address by Rev. Charles D. Bulla, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

A large crowd had in the meantime gathered, and after the rendering of appropriating hymns by representatives from the various church choirs of the city, Rev. W. J. Morton, rector of Christ Church, invoked a blessing upon the assemblage.

Past Grand Commander William A. Smoot then introduced Rev. C. D. Bulla, who, he said, was born in Missouri of Virginia parents, and as true to southern institutions as the needle to the pole. Mr. Bulla began his oration by making appropriate quotations from history and reciting amusing anecdotes, but he was soon portraying to his audience rock-ribbed facts in the political history of the United States from continental days to the breaking out of the civil war in 1861. Mr. Bulla read extracts from speeches delivered by the most prominent Americans who ever lived, which proved conclusively that the southern people were not rebels, but that they merely acted on a right accorded them when their States entered the federal compact. The right to secede was acknowledged by representative men at the north, but when the south put it into effect her people were strangely called rebels. The result of the war, however, had united the country, and the people of the south were as patriotic as those of any other section of the United States and as ready to take up arms in defense of the flag. Mr. Bulla praised the Confederate army, its leaders, the labors and devotion of southern women during and subsequent to the war, and inclosing recalled scenes at the intersection of Prince and Washington streets 46 years ago, when Alexandria boys bade adieu to relatives, friends and homes to go forth at the mandate of their country. At the close of the exercises at the monument, the procession moved to the Confederate mound, where the Alexandria Light Infantry fired three volleys and a bugler sounded "taps."

Colonial Relics.

The box containing the Colonial and Revolutionary relics loaned by the Mt. Vernon Chapter D. A. R. of this city to the Jamestown Exposition was sent some days ago. The relics number nearly one hundred; they are unique and of great historic and intrinsic value, giving the chapter reason to claim that its exhibit will be of greater interest than that of any other D. A. R. chapter represented at the exposition. Especial credit is due Mrs. R. C. Powell and Mrs. Eleanor W. Howard for their untiring efforts in making the collection the success that it is. The chapter has been solicited to give an exhibition of the relics in September, before they are returned to the owners, who so graciously intrusted them to its care. Among these relics, especially to be noted, are: Gen. Washington's spurs, drinking cup owned and used by La Fayette, silver candlestick owned by George Mason of Gunston, cut glass pitcher owned and used by Col. Wm. Byrd of Westover, Chief Justice Marshall's knee buckles, sundial given by William Penn to his friend John Churchhill in 1682, locket with hair of Gen. and Mrs. Washington and miniatures of Robert Morris and his wife by John Trumbull.

The policemen donned their new uniforms yesterday.

Wright's Case.

Following the announcement made yesterday that a petition had been signed by several citizens of Alexandria county asking Governor Swanson to commute to life imprisonment the sentence in the case of Joseph Thomas, alias John Wright, colored, condemned to be hanged May 31, a movement was started among the citizens of the county with a view of presenting a request to the governor to allow the law to take its course. A petition to that effect, bearing about 100 signatures has been forwarded to Richmond. It is understood that the appeal for commutation will be presented to the governor early next week by Mr. James E. Clements, counsel for the prisoner. All arrangements for the execution of Thomas have been made by the county officials, and unless executive clemency is extended Thomas will be hanged next Friday morning between the hours of 6 a. m. and noon. He was convicted October 31 last on the charge of committing an assault, near Luna Park, September 9, 1906. His case has been reviewed by the State Court of Appeals, which, after granting a staw of execution, finally by a divided court declined to order a new trial.

Ferry Steamers Sold.

The Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company has sold to the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railway its ferry steamers Woodberry and Callahan, recently built for operation between Washington and Alexandria. The Woodberry, which was under charter of the Old Dominion Steamship Company of Norfolk for the Jamestown exposition passenger service, has been released by that company and left yesterday for New York, where the Lackawanna will use both steamers in ferry service. The Callahan, now under charter to the Chesapeake and Ohio railway as a Newport News and exposition grounds ferry steamer, will leave for New York as soon as released in November. The price paid for the steamers is not stated. They cost the Norfolk and Washington company about $130,000 each.

St. Mary's Church.

Tomorrow being the last day of the Paschal season, during which time all Catholics are required, under the penalty of excommunication, to receive Holy Communion, the Church urges all who have not as yet complied with this requirement to do so. For the benefit of those of foreign birth who would prefer making their confession in the mother tongue the services of Father O'Horo, of the diocese of South Dakota, have been secured to hear confessions tonight until 10 o'clock and tomorrow morning before the 7 o'clock mass. Father O'Horo is a linguist of ability, speaking nine of the modern languages as well as the Celtic. At the 10:30 mass tomorrow he will preach the sermon, taking his theme from the gospel of the day.

False Alarm.

While Rev. W. J. Morton, of Christ Church, was delivering the prayer in front of the Confederate Monument at Prince and Washington streets yesterday evening the clock in the City Hall striking six and the bell in St. Mary's Church steeple ringing at the same time caused all the boys—and there were several hundred at the intersection—to imagine a fire alarm had been struck. There was a stampede eastward which caused some excitement for a short time.

"Evening in Dixie."

One of the features of the "Evening in Dixie," under the auspices of the Seventeenth Virginia Regiment Chapter, U. D. C, at Lee Camp Hall Tuesday evening, will be a drill by forty children, carrying Confederate flags, and under the direction of Miss Blanche Rotchford. Southern songs will be sung by Mr. Kenneth Ogden, Mr. George H. Evans and several Washington singers. The refreshments will consist of ice cream and home-made cake.

Second Presbyterian Church.

By request Rev. J. R. Sevier will repeat his sermon, or lecture on Noah, in the Second Presbyterian Church tomorrow night. Owing to the rain but few persons were able to attend last Sunday night.

Miss Alice Chinn will sing a solo at the morning service at the Second Presbyterian Church tomorrow, and Miss Lucy Graves will sing at the evening service.

Was Breaking up Furniture.

George Jones, colored, was arrested yesterday by Officer Bell, on complaint of Addie Green, colored, who alleged that Jones, who lives at her home, had became incensed because of delay in the preparation of a meal and had proceeded to break up the furniture in the house. She also charged that he picked up a razor and threatened to use it on her. Jones was taken before Justice Caton this morning and fined $5.

Memorial Day Services.

Alexandria and Belle Haven Councils, J. O. U. A., will hold memorial day services at 3:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the Methodist Protestant cemetery. Rev. G. I. Humphreys, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church, will deliver the oration, and Rev. Edgar Carpenter, of Grace Church, will take part in the services. Should the weather be unfavorable the exercises will be conducted in Sarepta Hall.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Henry Washington, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

George Jones, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Relief from Rheumatic Pains.

"I suffered with rheumatism for over two years," says Mr. Rolland Curry, a patrolman, of Key West, Fla. "Sometimes it settled in my knees and lamed me so I could hardly walk, at other times it would be in my feet and hands so I was incapacitated for duty. One night when I was in severe pain and lame from it my wife went to the drug store here and came back with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Palm. I was rubbed with it and found the pain had nearly gone during the night. I kept on using it for a little more than two weeks and found that it drove the rheumatism away, I have not had any trouble from that disease for over three months." For sale by W. F. Creighton and Gibson and Timberman.

Labor Unions and Farmers Unite

To control the prices of farm products sold in St. Louis is the purpose of the St. Louis Equity Exchange, just organized, with Rev. Father J. T. Tuohy, George W. Wickline and Owen Miller as its leading promoters. Labor unions are closely connected with the project. Mr. Miller is president of the Central Trades and Labor Union. Mr. Wickline is a farmer, and Father Tuohy, who is in active charge of the new organization, is pastor of Catholic churches at Jonesburg and Truesdale in the archdiocese of St. Louis.

A union label to distinguish union farm products is to be adopted and members of labor unions will be asked to purchase only articles so labelled. The farmers, in return, are to purchase only union-made goods. The exchange has headquarters in Indianapolis and branches in fourteen States.

The local branch is undertaking the milk business first, and Father Tuohy says the dairy is in operation at a profit, farmers in Illinois supplying the milk.

It is believed that the custom assured by the alliance of the new exchange with the labor unions will be so large that the prices fixed by the exchange will regulate the market.

The national organization is said to have formed alliances with the Tobacco Growers' Association, the Fruit and Produce Dealers' Association and the Peanut Growers' Association.

A Hard Debt to Pay.

"I owe a debt of gratitude that can never be paid off," writes G. S. Clark, of Westfield, Iowa, "for my rescue from death, by Dr. King's New Discovery. Both lungs were so seriously affected that death seemed imminent, when I commenced taking New Discovery. The eminent dry, hacking cough quit before the first bottle was used, and two more bottles made a complete cure." Nothing has ever equaled New Discovery for coughs, colds and all throat and lung complaints. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Strike Ordered.

On Tuesday, in New York city, J. C. Stuart, general manager of the Erie Railroad, told James O'Connell, of Washington, president of the International Association of Machinists, that he did not dare call a strike on the Erie Railroad, stating to O'Connell, according to the report of men who heard the conversation, that the Erie was tired of paying $10,000 a year to keep the machinists from striking.

O'Connell declared that Stuart could not prove that statement, and Stuart said he had the papers to prove it. Yesterday, O'Connell called out all the machinists along the line.

Master Mechanic Brown, of the local shops, heard that Stuart had charged O'Connell with receiving money to ward off strikes, and a mass meeting of the men was held at Cleveland, Ohio, last night to investigate. President O'Connell went from Washington to state his case. He denounced the statement of Stuart as false, and said he had called the strike to show that he was not afraid of any charges that the Erie might make against him.

The strike affects all the repair shops of the Erie system, from Chicago to Jersey City, and brings out about 5,000 machinists and helpers.

Killed in Riot at a Circus.

In a terrific riot between circus men and citizens at Mendota, Ill., yesterday one man, a citizen, was killed and two showmen were fatally injured. The riot started when one of the canvas men connected with the John Robinson shows made an insulting remark to one of the girls at the preformance. The remark was resented, and a free-for-all battle started. Tent stakes and every available missile were utilized. Mendota fire and police departments were called out. The former turned a full force of water on the combatants, but without avail to stop the fight. The battle raged for more than three hours. A score were seriously wounded and taken to hospitals. Every window within three blocks of the show lot was smashed, and goods valued at thousands of dollars were either damaged or stolen. During the battle the show train was hastily pulled out of town to Dixon, the next stand.

Let me mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative, and my Book on either Dyspepsia, The Heart, or The Kidneys. Address me, Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. Trouble of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ailment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptom treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—means Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys, as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves, and you inevitably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write for my free Book now.
